

GINNA VEST, Development Director

Ginna received her Master of Educational Administration from UNC Charlotte and has been a teacher, school administrator, and curriculum coordinator for the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Schools, as well as the Cabarrus County Schools. Most recently, Ginna served six years at a local nonprofit as Chief Development Officer promoting community relationships, organizing fundraisers, and forming nonprofit boards, before beginning as Development Director with iCan House.

She has volunteered at Kaleideum (The Children's Museum), Brenner Children's Hospital, SCAN, and is active in ministry at Centenary United Methodist Church, as well as the Rotary Club for Forsyth County. Ginna is also the parent of a neurodivergent teenager.